Report on Register of Members' Interest of Rajya Sabha MPs

Executive Summary

The Register of Members' Interest, containing details of Rajya Sabha MPs was procured by ADR and NEW through an RTI application. This report analyses the declaration of pecuniary interests of 211 sitting MPs of Rajya Sabha. The report does not go into investigative analysis regarding the business/pecuniary interests of the MPs or whether they are in conflict with the committees they are currently a part of.

Rajya Sabha members are required to mention the following types of pecuniary interests:

1. Remunerative Directorship.
2. Regular Remunerative Activity.
3. Shareholding of a Controlling Nature.
4. Paid Consultancy.
5. Professional Engagement.

About Register of Members' Interest

In India, disclosure of interest is provided in both Houses of Parliament, in different ways. It has been ruled by the Chairman of the Rajya Sabha that a Member having a personal pecuniary or direct interest on a matter before the House is required, while taking part in the proceedings in that matter, to declare the nature of interest. {Rulings and Observations from the Chair 1952-2000(469), p 338}.

The Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Lok Sabha prescribe that if the vote of a Member in a division in the House is challenged on grounds of personal, pecuniary or direct interest in the matter to be decided, the Speaker may examine the issue and decide whether the vote of the Member should be disallowed or not and his decision shall be final. Furthermore, the Handbook for Members provides that a Member having personal, pecuniary or direct interest in a matter to be decided by the House is expected, while taking part in the proceedings on that matter, to declare his interest.

A specific mechanism for disclosure of pecuniary interests is maintenance of a 'Register of Interests' which is currently being practised only in the Rajya Sabha. Parliamentarians are expected to record in the register all their interests periodically. In order to make the system practical, the types of interest, which require disclosure, are prescribed. A closely related mechanism is declaration of the assets and liabilities of the Rajya Sabha and Lok Sabha members at regular intervals.

The pecuniary interest details of 33 MPs were not available at the time of making this report. The 33 MPs not included in the report are;

Recommendations of ADR and NEW:

- A Register of Pecuniary Interests of members of the Lok Sabha should be maintained by the Lok Sabha Secretariat and made available in the public domain.
- There should be a mechanism for thorough scrutiny and verification into the authenticity of the declarations of financial interest made by members on the 'form' of pecuniary interest.
- The pecuniary details provided in the Register of Interest should be provided to the Income Tax authorities or other appropriate body for cross-checking with the Income Tax Returns filed by the MPs.
- The business and pecuniary interests of the spouse and dependents should also be declared by the MPs along with their own business interests.
- No field on the form should be left blank.
- On the section for 'Type of Business' – The description should be exhaustive to include all kinds of activities undertaken by the business.
- The date of filing the Interest details with the Secretariat should be provided on the form.
