

Analysis of 1st List of Candidates for Karnataka 2013 Assembly Elections (BJP and INC)

Karnataka Election Watch (KEW) is a statewide network of non political, non partisan citizens and citizen organization. Nearly all the Districts of Karnataka are represented in this. There are also several eminent persons who are guiding and supporting this work on electoral reforms, improving democracy and governance in India. KEW has been monitoring the candidates for the 2013 Karnataka Assembly Election declared by political parties. Association for Democratic Reforms (ADR) and Karnataka Election Watch (KEW) looked at the first lists declared by various political parties and checked the records of these candidates with the affidavits submitted by them during the last assembly election. A brief analysis of financial, criminal and other background details of Contesting Candidates in the upcoming elections has been carried out by the Karnataka Election Watch.

For this analysis, Karnataka Election Watch would like to thank and acknowledge the data provided by various citizen led groups like the Karnataka Social Watch which is part of the Social Watch India for their Karnataka Social Watch Report – 2012, DAKSH, Child Rights Trust and KCRO-Karnataka Child Rights Observatory (Performance of Legislators 2008 – 2012, Attendance of Legislators, Questions asked by Legislators) and all are volunteers.

In the 1st list of candidates:

- 140 Candidates declared by BJP for Karnataka 2013 Elections
- 177 Candidates declared by INC for Karnataka 2013 Elections

Please note that the analysis of financial and criminal records, if any, is based on affidavits filed by candidates in 2008. Subsequently, some MLAs or candidates may have resigned or changed parties. Information on the latest status regarding assets and liabilities, as well as criminal charges if any, will be released after all nominations are filed. However, information they filed in 2008 is analyzed and presented below.

Table: Summary of candidates in the 1st list of BJP and INC

Karnataka Election Watch (KEW) urges political parties to disclose their criteria for selection of candidates. The criterion must contain the ability and willingness of these candidates to do legislature work.

Whereas most legislatures are now passing recommendations for increase in MLAs salaries and perks, there is virtually no discussion on the role of MLAs. The parties must include various parameters for improving performance of Legislatures in their Election Manifestoes. They must also ensure that once they come to power they will make it easy for people to access information pertaining to performance of MLAs and State Legislative Assemblies through their official websites.

Analysis of Attendance and Questions asked In Karnataka State Assembly (2008-2013)

To perform the all-important function of legislation, our law makers are meeting for a very low number of days (per year) both in state assemblies and in the Parliament. Karnataka Election Watch partners Karnataka Social Watch, Daksh, Child Right Trust and KCRO-Karnataka Child Rights Observatory collected and analyzed information on the attendance and the number of questions asked by MLAs in the Karnataka Legislative Assembly from 2008 to 2012.

Number of Days of Sitzings in State Assemblies and Lok Sabha
