FOREWORD

This report is essentially an iceberg; the visible portion is a mere 12 per cent of the whole, the balance 88 per cent is left to the imagination of the readers. The Election Watch is not supposed to conduct investigations into the life style of the candidates, it has to, as per the rules of fair play, rely upon the affidavits sworn by the candidates. The Odisha Election Watch (OEW) as a part of the National Election Watch undertook the onerous duty of making every detail gleaned from the candidates' affidavits public so that the electorate in particular and the public in general make an assessment of the person or persons they are about to select through their votes as their representative to the Assembly and Lok Sabha. We in the OEW have made some analytical statements (pardon us they are not our judgments) out of data collected from affidavits. It is up to the voters who may, if they feel aggrieved that a particular candidate has misstated any fact or suppressed any; file an election dispute which may result in disqualification of the concerned candidate. It is this fear that makes affidavits a crucial document. A keen watcher may try to compare his intimate knowledge of a candidate with his (candidate's) declarations in affidavit and conclude if the candidate is cheating his voters. We wished to make people aware that if they find the 12 percent revealed in affidavits indicative of the rest 88 per cent they should reject them at the hustings. If they do not reject it justifies the saying "you deserve the candidate you select".

Every candidate aspires to be people's representative and in that capacity would be law maker and tax levier. He is not expected to have broken any law or to have defaulted in payment of government or bank dues. A PAN (Permanent Account Number) card is a simple requirement for every citizen, it is also an ID (identity) card. It is indicative of one's intention to pay income tax if he/she is above IT exemption limit. Some candidates do not show that they have PAN and thereby do not show transparency in their public life. Educational qualification, crime history, property value etc. are more for public consumption than for its worth.

We were to watch the 2009 Assembly Election and the State's part of the National Election and make comments while elections were conducted. Now that it is over we are inclined to make some observations as above. It is a sad commentary on our democracy that political parties have been ignoring criminal behaviour of the candidates they nominate, fielding candidates with higher and higher income each subsequent elections, thereby making us feel that in their perception the amount of wealth they have acquired legally or otherwise and not the spirit of public service is the most important winnability criterion. Obviously concern for garibi elimination programmes are skin deep. Character and probity in public life are at a discount.

Affidavits are for public consumption and therefore may be hiding nine tenths of what the candidate really is. Probity in Public Life is a sine qua non for success of Democracy. We have been observing that with every passing election, transparency and probity in public life are widening and a day may come when democracy will no longer be a gamble for the undeservingly rich but a profession for the public spirited.

Mr. Sahadeva Sahoo

(Former Chief Secretary to the Government of Odisha and Former Vice Chancellor, Odisha University of Agriculture and Technology)

Background on Association for Democratic reforms (ADR) and National Election Watch (NEW)

About ADR & NEW

Association for Democratic Reforms (ADR) was established in August 1999 by a group of Professors from the Indian Institute of Management (IIM), Ahmedabad. It started by filing a PIL in Delhi High Court in 1999 asking for disclosure of criminal, financial and educational background of candidates contesting elections. Based on this, Supreme Court in 2002 and subsequently in 2003, made disclosure of criminal, financial and educational background mandatory for candidates contesting Parliament and State Legislature elections, prior to the polls by filing an affidavit with the Election Commission.

The National Election Watch (NEW) is a nationwide campaign comprising of more than 1200 NGOs and other citizen led organizations working together on electoral reforms, improving democracy and governance in India. The National Election Watch is active in almost all states of India and has done election watch for all states and Lok Sabha elections to enable voters to make informed choice during elections.

Brief background

Early 1999:	11 IIM-Ahmedabad professors get together to form Association for Democratic Reforms to work on electoral reforms.
August 1999:	ADR files PIL in Delhi High Court seeking disclosure of pending criminal cases by candidates contesting elections to parliament and state assemblies.
November 02, 2000:	Delhi High Court upholds above PIL.
December 2000:	Government of India appeals to Supreme Court against judgment of Delhi High Court.
May 02, 2002:	Supreme Court rejects the appeal and upholds the High Court judgment.
June 28, 2002:	Election Commission issues orders to implement the Supreme Court judgment.
July 08, 2002:	All party meeting decides to amend Representation of People Act to prevent/dilute the Supreme Court's orders.
August 22, 2002:	Cabinet sends Ordinance for amending the Representation of People Act, to President
August 23, 2002:	President returns the Ordinance.
August 24, 2002:	Cabinet sends the Ordinance to the President a second time, the President signs, in keeping with the convention.

October 2002:	PILs filed in Supreme Court, including one by ADR, challenging the constitutional validity of the amendment to the Representation of People Act, done by above Ordinance.
March 13, 2003:	Supreme Court declares above amendment of the Representation of People Act as “illegal, null and void” and restores its May 02, 2002 judgment.
March 27, 2003:	Election Commission issues orders implementing the Supreme Court judgment.
2002-till date:	First ADR, and now National Election Watch, conducts Election Watches in all Parliament and State Assembly elections, collecting copies of affidavits filed by candidates, and collating and summarizing the information given by candidate under oath.

Data available for over 50,000 candidates, self-declared by the candidates themselves under the Supreme Court order

2007:	Files RTI applications before Election Commission and the Tax authorities seeking information whether Political Parties file their contribution reports as per Sec 29(A) of RPA (Representation of Peoples’ Act) 1951 to get tax benefits under Sec 13A of Income Tax Act, 1961
21 Jun 2007:	EC response contains details on 21 parties’s contribution report. Many parties are listed for not submitting the reports ever. Tax Authorities refuse to divulge the information
2008:	CIC on 2 nd appeal allows tax returns of political parties to be made public and directs the authorities to furnish copies of the IT returns of the parties to public
2008:	Scrutiny of copies of the return reveals that all the parties have availed benefit under Sec 13 A of the Income Tax Act, even those who have not filed their statutorily mandated contribution reports before Election Commission.
2008:	Files a PIL in Supreme Court to issue order to conduct an inquiry to examine all defaulting parties whom have been given benefit of section 13A of Income Tax Act and to take appropriate action against the defaulting political parties to recover the income tax due from them from the date of default till date
Nov, 14 2008:	Supreme Court sets the PIL aside
Jan 2009:	Discussion with network partners to strategize on next steps.
May 2009:	Results of Lok Sabha Election Watch shows that majority of candidates with heinous criminal records lost elections.
Nov 2009:	First ever report on election expenses released by ADR and NEW.

Our few achievements

- ADR won two milestone judgments on disclosure of candidate's criminal and financial records from the Supreme Court in May 2002 and March 2003 respectively. Since then, 1200 NGOs from all over the country are supporting ADR and ADR in partnership with its partners has organized Citizen Election Watch for all major elections and disclosed candidate's background information to the media and the public.
- After the Supreme Court's order, Members of Parliament (MPs) lined up to clear their outstanding dues to the Government for rent, electricity, phone bills and so on to avoid embarrassing disclosures while filing nomination papers.
- The Election Commission has completed a massive exercise based on the Gujarat Election Watch report to verify information filed by candidates in the nomination papers and affidavits, and has started proceedings against candidates with false declarations. They are now currently doing that for the subsequent elections as well.
- A Bill on Electoral Expenses passed in September 2003. The EC has taken it one-step forward and asked candidates to file a statement of expenses in every three days during the campaign. The EC has also made this information (in addition to the affidavits filed by candidates disclosing financial, criminal and educational background) available to citizens on request to Returning Officers, District Election Officers and the CEOs.
- Civil Society non-partisan Election Watches are springing up in different states. In the Lok Sabha 2004 Elections, 19 States and 5 Union Territories carried out Election Watches. In the Lok Sabha 2009 elections, Election Watches were held in all states and union territories in the country.
- Bihar Election Watch in October-November 2005 resulted in intense pressure on the Chief Minister Designate due to the extensive media coverage of candidate background. As a result, for the first time, Bihar has a Council of Ministers without any known criminal record.
- A national level political leader contacted ADR during the UP Election Watch in 2007 and wanted the list of candidates for his party with criminal details. Similarly, this also happened in the Karnataka Assembly Elections 2008.
- The Election Commission inaugurated Civil Society led National Conferences on Electoral Reforms in Ahmadabad, Bangalore, Patna, Lucknow and Mumbai. These Conferences were action oriented and resulted in successful Election Watch campaigns. The Election Commission has backed this work and the Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) has attended each year's Annual National Conference on Electoral and Political Reforms.
- The EC issued several very significant orders in the last one or two years relating to candidate disclosure, enforcing those affidavits are complete, taking action against false affidavits based on complaints, and disclosing electoral expenses.

- In April 2008, ADR obtained a landmark ruling from the Central Information Commission (CIC) saying that Income Tax Returns of Political Parties would now be available in the public domain along with the assessment orders.
- In the Karnataka Assembly Elections, 2008, there was a reduction in the number of candidates with serious offenses put by parties. There were 93 such cases against candidates in the 2008 elections, down from 217 in the 2004 assembly elections.
- Overall, the percentage of candidates with pending criminal cases came down from 20% to 14% in the assembly elections held in the country in 2008 for the states of Rajasthan, Chhattisgarh, Madhya Pradesh, NCT of Delhi and Mizoram.
- Mr. L.K. Advani, Leader of the BJP gave a press statement that the BJP would not file candidates with criminal records (October 2008). Mr. Rahul Gandhi, General Secretary of the Indian National Congress (INC), made similar announcement.
- A large number of candidates with serious pending cases that contested Lok Sabha 2009 elections like Pappu Yadav, Atiq Ahmed, Mukhtar Ansari, Akhilesh Singh, etc. lost.
- The number of total serious IPC sections against MPs decrease from 296 in Lok Sabha 2004 to 274 in Lok Sabha 2009.
- On Jan 25, 2010 both the Congress Chief Ms Sonia Gandhi and leader of opposition in Lok Sabha Ms Sushma Swaraj of BJP made public statements calling for a consensus on barring candidates with criminal backgrounds from contesting elections.
- On Feb 3, 2010 Prime Minister Manmohan Singh asks his Cabinet colleagues to disclose details of their assets and liabilities and refrain from dealing with the government on immovable property.
