PREFACE

An essential pre-requisite for a functioning democracy is periodically held elections that are free and fair giving equal opportunity to all citizens to choose their representative with full knowledge of the competence of the candidate to fulfill his role as a representative of the electors and the citizen. The electors should be fully aware of the merits and demerits of the contesting candidates in order to be able to make an informed choice. The information about the contesting candidates accrues to the electors in various different ways. In democracies where party organizations are strong, the intra-party selection procedure ensures wide dissemination of information about the aspiring candidates and supplemented by an active media, both print and visual, the information travels far and wide, effectively educating the voters. However, in India with the just 60 years' tradition of functioning as a democratic polity, we are still evolving practices and procedures in regard to the education of the electors. With the political parties following opaque procedures for selection of candidates, there is very little chance full antecedents of the candidates becoming available to be electorate. Overtime the media and civil society organizations have tried to bridge the gap. It is thanks to the civil society organizations like ADR, NEW and the pro-active role played by the Supreme court that it is now mandatory for the candidates to provide complete details of their Assets and Liabilities as also the information about pending criminal cases against them in the form of an Affidavit which is required to be filed along with the nomination paper. The ADR and NEW have carried this task further by undertaking the task of disseminating that information far and wide for the benefit of the electors. Actively helped by the Election Commission of India which, in its quest for more transparency, mandated that the information provided by the candidates in their affidavits should be publicly displayed soon after the candidate file the information. The ADR and NEW have organized widespread dissemination by compiling the information from the affidavits and sharing it with the public through the media. They have further arranged to publish the information in respect of each state in the form of a Book. I am happy that ADR is releasing this Book containing information about the Assets and Liabilities in cases against the contesting candidates of the 2011 General Elections to the Tamilnadu Assembly. I am sure this will enable the informed electors to make better choices in the forthcoming election to the Tamilnadu Assembly.

FOREWORD

Elections are the foundation and bedrock on which the representative system of parliamentary democracy stands. In the Western countries, Greece is noted as the birth place of the concept of 'democracy' in preference to tyranny and autocracy. The political philosopher Plato said: "One of the penalties for refusing to participate in politics is that you end up in being governed by your inferiors." Worse than that, in India at the present, there is unprecedented surge of scams, shameless misrule, countless criminalities, injustice and anarchy. India is the largest democracy of more than a billion people and also the biggest centre of corruption running in trillions.

While most of the political parties are striving to win elections, somehow or other, by the power of muscle, money, or ministerial authority, it was left to a group of the learned Professors from the Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad (IIM) and the National Institute of Design (NID) to form in 1999 the Association for Democratic Reforms (ADR) as a Non-Political, Non-Partisan and a Non-Governmental Organization to ensure electoral reform for free and fair poll. The Association worked hard to win two landmark judgments on candidates' disclosure of criminal and financial records from the Supreme Court in May 2002 and March 2003 against the strong opposition of the Union Government backed by the support of all parties in the Parliament

The Association formed in December 2002 the National Election Watch which laboriously scrutinised the affidavits submitted by the candidate and published the information regarding each candidate about his convictions in criminal cases and pending ones, if any, and also his assets (along with those of his spouses including dependents), his liabilities and educational qualifications.

The present brochure by the Tamil Nadu Election Watch gives a complete analysis of Criminal and Financial details of Candidates and elected MLAs from Tamil Nadu 2011 Assembly. The analysis has been done by them, without any political favour or partiality, only to present to the sovereign electors about the criminal and unethical aberrations polluting obnoxiously the political field and thereby all walks of life.

Justice Louis Brandeis in the US Federal Court made a memorable dissent: "Our government is the potent, omnipresent teacher. For good or for ill, it teaches the whole people by its example. Crime is contagious. If the government becomes a law-breaker, it breeds contempt for law; it invites every man to become a law unto himself; it invites anarchy." (Olmstead v. United States, 277 -1928) Later, his dissent note has become as a quotable quote for all..

I leave the Analysis to be gone through and benefited by the electors so as to redeem the political and moral values of public life in the country, not only for themselves at the present, but to leave a rich legacy of freedom and democracy to the generations to come.

Ballot is the only the peaceful instrument available to the citizens of a democracy to eradicate corruption, to drive out bad men and criminals who had entered surreptitiously the halls of governance and treasure troves of corruption.

Data in this Kit is presented in good faith, with an intention to inform voters. Candidates' affidavit with nomination papers is the source of this analysis. www.adrindia.org, <http://www.myneta.info>, adr@adrindia.org, <http://www.twitter.com/adrspeaks>, <http://www.facebook.com/adr.new>

Edmund Burke said: "When bad men combine, the good must associate together; else they will fall, one by one, an unpitied sacrifice in a contemptible struggle." He also stated: "All that is required for evil to prevail is for good men to do nothing."

Introduction

Despite its foibles and failings, democracy is the best form of government conceived by man because, more than anything else, it is founded on the dignity of the human being.

This is reflected in the Preamble to the Constitution of India, which is the bedrock of our democracy:

WE, THE PEOPLE OF INDIA, having solemnly resolved to constitute India into a Sovereign, Socialist, Secular, Democratic Republic and to secure to all its citizens: Justice, social, economic and political; Liberty of thought, expression, belief, faith and worship; Equality of status and of opportunity; and to promote among them all Fraternity assuring the dignity of the individual and the unity and integrity of the Nation; do hereby adopt, enact and give to ourselves this Constitution.”

The message is clear – unity and integrity of the nation is possible only if the dignity of the individual is assured. Only a vibrant and functioning democracy can ensure this.

Election is the essence of democracy. Integrity is the salt. But if the salt loses its flavour, it is then good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under the feet of men. This is precisely what is happening. Saltiness of India’s elections is fast losing its flavour and the electoral process is being cast out and trodden under the heavy boots of criminal and money power. If this continues unabated, India’s democracy will remain only in paper, not in practice.

People’s power in general and youth power in particular can combat this venality that is engulfing the Nation in general and the state in particular. For this they need to be informed and educated about the evil forces out to destroy our democracy.

During our tour of the state as part of the Forum for Electoral Integrity and interaction with the public and the students one question rings out loud and clear – How do we identify the criminal and the corrupt among the candidates and political parties so that we can reject them individually by opting for good candidates, if not reject them in toto using Rule 49 O of the Conduct of Election Rules?

This compendium published by the Tamil Nadu Election Watch will significantly answer the question and I commend it to the TN electorate.

Background on Association for Democratic Reforms (ADR) and National Election Watch (NEW)

About ADR & NEW

Association for Democratic Reforms (ADR) was established in 1999 by group of professors from Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Ahmedabad. In 1999, a Public Interest Litigation (PIL) was filed by them with Delhi High Court asking the disclosure of criminal, financial and educational background of the candidates contesting elections. Based on this, the Supreme Court in 2002 and subsequently in 2003, made it mandatory for all candidates contesting elections to disclose Criminal, Financial and educational background prior to the polls by filing an affidavit with Election Commission.

Data in this Kit is presented in good faith, with an intention to inform voters. Candidates' affidavit with nomination papers is the source of this analysis. www.adrindia.org, <http://www.myneta.info>, adr@adrindia.org, <http://www.twitter.com/adrspeaks>, <http://www.facebook.com/adr.new>

The first election watch was conducted by ADR in 2002 for Gujarat Assembly Elections whereby detailed analysis of the backgrounds of candidates contesting elections was provided to the electorate in order to help the electorate make an informed choice during polls. Since then ADR has conducted Election Watches for almost all state and parliament elections in collaboration with the National Election Watch. It conducts multiple projects aimed at increasing transparency and accountability in the political and electoral system of the country.

Our Achievements

- ADR won the NASSCOM award for ICT led Innovation by Multi-stakeholder Partnerships. This award was for the Election Watch software of ADR and Webrosoft.
- ADR won two milestone judgments on disclosure of candidate's criminal and financial records from the Supreme Court in May 2002 and March 2003 respectively. Since then, 1200 NGOs from all over the country are supporting ADR and ADR in partnership with its partners has organized Citizen Election Watch for all major elections and disclosed candidate's background information to the media and the public.
- The Election Commission has completed a massive exercise based on the Gujarat Election Watch report to verify information filed by candidates in the nomination papers and affidavits, and has started proceedings against candidates with false declarations.
- A Bill on Electoral Expenses was passed in September 2003. The EC has asked candidates to file a statement of expenses in every three days during the campaign. This information is made available to citizens on request to Returning Officers, District Election Officers and the CEOs.
- Civil Society non-partisan Election Watches are springing up in different states. In the Lok Sabha 2004 Elections, 19 States and 5 Union Territories carried out Election Watches. In the Lok Sabha 2009 elections, Election Watches were held in all states and union territories in the country.
- Bihar Election Watch in October-November 2005 resulted in intense pressure on the Chief Minister designate due to the extensive media coverage of candidate's background. As a result, for the first time, Bihar has a Council of Ministers without any known criminal record.
- The Election Commission inaugurated Civil Society led National Conferences on Electoral Reforms in Ahmedabad, Bangalore, Patna, Lucknow, Mumbai, Bhopal and Chennai. These Conferences were action oriented and resulted in successful Election Watch campaigns.
- The EC issued several very significant orders in the last two years relating to candidate disclosure, ensuring those affidavits are complete, taking action against false affidavits based on complaints, and disclosing electoral expenses.
- In April 2008, ADR obtained a landmark ruling from the Central Information Commission (CIC) saying that Income Tax Returns of Political Parties would now be available in the public domain along with the assessment orders.
- In the Karnataka Assembly Elections, 2008, there was a reduction in the number of candidates with serious offenses put up by parties. There were 93 such cases against candidates in the 2008 elections, down from 217 in the 2004 assembly elections.

Data in this Kit is presented in good faith, with an intention to inform voters. Candidates' affidavit with nomination papers is the source of this analysis. www.adrindia.org, <http://www.myneta.info>, adr@adrindia.org, <http://www.twitter.com/adrspeaks>, <http://www.facebook.com/adr.new>

- Overall, the percentage of candidates with pending criminal cases came down from 20% to 14% in the assembly elections held in the country in 2008 for the states of Rajasthan, Chhattisgarh, Madhya Pradesh, NCT of Delhi and Mizoram.
- A large number of candidates with serious pending cases that contested Lok Sabha 2009 elections like Pappu Yadav, Atiq Ahmed, Mukhtar Ansari, Akhilesh Singh, etc. lost.
- The number of total serious IPC sections against MPs decrease from 296 in Lok Sabha 2004 to 274 in Lok Sabha 2009.
- On Jan 25, 2010 both the Congress Chief Ms Sonia Gandhi and leader of opposition in Lok Sabha Ms Sushma Swaraj of BJP made public statements calling for a consensus on barring candidates with criminal backgrounds from contesting elections.
- On Feb 3, 2010 Prime Minister Manmohan Singh asked his Cabinet colleagues to disclose details of their assets and liabilities and refrain from dealing with the government on immovable property.
- Because of an RTI application that ADR has been following up with the CIC for nearly the past 2 years, the contribution reports of major political parties have been made public. Added to this is the fact that the Election Commission has taken proactive steps towards bringing in some level of accountability in the functioning of the political parties by getting the ICAI to develop reporting formats for political parties
- In May, 2010, the Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh, Ms. Mayawati had announced the expulsion of about 500 party leaders with criminal past.
- In January 2011, the Election Commission of India entrusted the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) with the task of developing accounting format for political parties.
- Details of the movable and immovable assets of 30 Bihar ministers, including that of CM Nitish Kumar, were uploaded on the government website in January, 2011. It is seen as a step aimed at ending corruption promised by the Chief Minister himself.
